TIC TAC TOE

Jaqueline is hiding something from you in the backyard!	Our grandma always writes birthday cards to us.	Mrs. Ines paid us ten dollars for the cookies.
Szandra has her own way of eating a cupcake.	She enjoys reading before falling asleep each night.	You will never believe what I just saw!
Please take these books and arrange them neatly.	The papers on the desk are yours.	The California condor flew to its nest high up in the tree.

"Did you like it?" asked Sasha, glancing at Saifo's half-eaten empanada.	She won't allow any late work to be turned in for partial credit.	Is that your baseball hat on the counter?
They arrived in town earlier this morning.	I didn't recognize my own handwriting on the paper.	I begged Katina to tell me the secret.
It is beautiful outside!	What time are you meeting him?	My sister's jeans were originally mine.

Student Directions

The object of TIC TAC TOE is to place your X or O in 3 spaces in a row, vertically, horizontally, or diagonally.

1. Choose who will be X and who will be O.
2. Player One chooses a space on the board, reads the sentence aloud, and identifies the pronoun. If you answer correctly (your opponent agrees*), write your X or O over the spot. If you answer incorrectly, do not write your X or O over the spot.
3. Player 2 chooses a different space and repeats the same process.
4. Alternate turns until one player gets three in a row or all the sentences have been played.

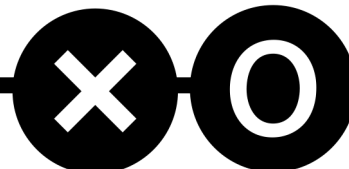

*Your teacher has an answer key if there are any disputes.

Player may not choose the same spot that has been answered incorrectly on the very next turn, but they may return to it on their next turn.
